Join Ocean Enterprises' instructor Curt Thompson as he heads to the warm, Caribbean waters of Utila Bay in the Bay Islands of Honduras. Your base for the week is Utila Lodge, where you'll experience world-class coral reef diving daily!

Utila is connected to the Belize Barrier Reef, the second largest reef system in the world. This just means that you will enjoy spectacular diving... turquoise water, abundant sea life, outstanding coral reefs, and even snorkeling with Whale Sharks! Each day you will hop in the water for 3 boat dives off the 41-foot Sea Sprite, including 2 night dives during the week. And if you decide on stay on the surface, adventures on Utila abound!

At Utila Lodge, accommodation is in 8 air-conditioned rooms situated directly over the calm waters of the Caribbean. Sip your morning coffee as you lounge in an oversized hammock on your private balcony, with unbeatable ocean views!

Included: International airfare from San Diego; 7 nights at Utila Lodge; 3 boat dives daily (including 2 night dives during the week); 3 meals per day; transfers; taxes; internet access; non-motorized sports equipment.

Not included: Gratuities; chamber fees; personal expenses; soda and alcohol; departure tax; extra activities.

Roatan, 2008

Join Ocean Enterprises on a journey to the beautiful CoCo View Resort - destination Roatan, the largest of the Bay Islands in Honduras. The resort location on the protected south shore makes it an ideal spot for maximizing dive time and relaxation!

CoCo View is a haven for divers, offering two boat dives daily (up to four tanks) and unlimited shore diving. With just a few fin kicks, divers can access the "Front Yard" house reef for wall dives, alive with vibrantly colored corals and tropical sea life, and the Prince Albert wreck... these same sites are favorites for easily accessible night diving as well.

CoCo View Resort features accommodation with a premier location right at the water's edge... or directly over it! Rooms are spacious, comfortable, air-conditioned, and decorated in traditional Honduras woods, textiles and colors. And of course each room boasts a deck or patio for maximum enjoyment of the oceanfront location!

Included: International airfare from San Diego; 7 nights at CoCo View Resort; 2 boat trips and unlimited shore diving daily; 3 meals per day; transfers; taxes; internet access; and non-motorized sports equipment.

Not included: Gratuities; chamber fees; personal expenses; soda and alcohol; departure tax; extra activities.
